IN THE PACIFIC

Great Northern Steamship Company, was due to reach Coronel, Chile, Monfor the arrival of the vessel at Seattle on November 30. Allowing the necessary time for coaling and repairs, the ship will not be ready to leave on her transpacific voyage until Decem-

The cargo the Minnesota will take weight. It is stated that contraband of war, such as raw cotton, ship plates and foodstuffs will be accepted, provided they are consigned to private inthe Japanese government.

"Arms, munitions of war, guns, small arms and explosives" will not, however, be taken under any conditions.

Yokohama, Kobe, Shanghai, Hongkong and Manila will be the vessel's ports of call in the Orient. If she is not delayed in her departure from Seattle, and she leaves there December 28, she is expected to arrive at Yokohama January 11. Three thousand five hundred tons of coal will be required Du Bois, Mrs. T. Smith and child, W. for this voyage. As the Minnesota is equipped with a refrigerating plant, there is no kind of goods she cannot carry. The Minnesota is to make Victoria a port of call outward and inward.-Victoria Colonist.

A ROUGH TRIP

The Mauna Loa arrived ahead of time yesterday morning from her Hawaii run. She reports a rough trip. The work in Kau was carried on with great difficulty because of the weather. They were only able to land at Punaluu during a lull on Saturday. The steamer brought all the sugar at Honuapo, 6000 odd bags. The plantation will probably finish its crop this month. Besides the 6033 bags of sugar, the Mauna Loa brought thirty head cattle, 1262 bags of coffee, 369 bags taro, 186 bundles bananas, fifty pigs and chickens, turkeys, tobacco, honey, beans, ginger, etc., and 306 packages of sundries.

Purser Conkling says that the reported eruption of Mauna Loa was not seen from the steamer. Kilauea, however, is sending forth a great volume

STAY NOT KNOWN

Upon inquiry at the Naval Station in regard to the Petrel, little could be found out. They have no information as to the reasons for her coming or the probable duration of her stay. "All naval boats on the Pacific, at least, are constantly under cable orders from Washington. They are never told beforehand how long they will remain at any one place and any statements in regard to that are purely the imagination of the reporter."

Shipping Notes.

There has been a general mix-up in the Inter-Island captains. Bruhn takes the Ke Au Hou, Pederson the Kinau and Tullett the Noeau. The Likelike is through being overhauled. She is now on the Marine railway and as soon as she is off will resume her old Molokai run. The Ke Au Hou, after being out of commission for months, was sent up on a special trip last evening to Lahaina and Kaanapali with freight. The principal item was 100 tons of fertili-
